Three of the sources - social security, VA benefits and pension - are consistent every month and are reflected on this amended schedule. The other two sources - foster care and employment - fluctuate weekly because they are direct care income which varies depending upon the number of people cared for and the hours worked. As of the date of the filing of this amended Schedule I on February 7, 2017, Debtor is receiving on average for the past 6 months, $1678.83 per month with the 1 foster children in the home. However, the placement of foster children varies depending upon what happens in Family Court on a month-to-month basis with the foster children's parents. As for the employment income, Debtor commenced her job on August 7, 2016. I have included all of the pay advices to date.
